

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

DELIGHTFUL house party will be given over Easter by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paul...

A garden party and bazaar will be held on the grounds of the estate of William L. Elkins...

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Donnell Lee, Jr. have closed their house on Kent road, Ardmore...

Franklin McFadden entertained at dinner last week in Miami, Fla., in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lowber Welsh and John Lowber Welsh, Jr. of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry La Barre Jayne are entertaining Lady Gregory at their home, 1035 Spruce street. She arrived last night, and will leave tomorrow. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Jayne will hold a reception to meet Lady Gregory...

Among the debutantes who will make their formal bow to society next fall will be Miss Margaret Burton and Miss Eleanor Wunder, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice C. Burton, 318 West Coulter street, Germantown.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Downing, of 319 Carpenter street, Germantown, will entertain at dinner tonight, in honor of Miss Evelyn Harrington and John M. Holton, whose marriage will take place on April 6. The guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butterworth, Jr., Miss Helen Gormley, Miss Audrey Kane, Miss Mildred Caverly, Howard Holton, Linton Matthews and Orin Godwin.

Robert G. Weimer, of the Hotel Stenton, returned on Monday from a tour of the west coast of Florida. Mr. Weimer was gone for three weeks.

Mrs. B. Franklin Wheatman, of 416 South 15th street, will open her house in Ocean City, N. J., for the Easter season.

Mrs. O. J. De Rouse entertained at luncheon today at her home, 615 West Horster street, Germantown. Covers were laid for nine guests.

ALONG THE MAIN LINE

OVERBROOK—A large bridge will be given this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Overbrook Golf Club for the members and their friends. Miss Adele Marguerite Mosler is in charge of the affair...

Among those present will be Mrs. Harley T. McDermott, Mrs. William J. Coane, Mrs. William Mulholland, Mrs. Paul Wolfe, Mrs. Eugene G. Mosler, Mrs. Frederick M. Mitchell, Mrs. Clifford T. McCurdy, Mrs. Paul Mulholland, Mrs. Winsor F. Eveland, Mrs. Harold Way, Miss Virginia Charlton, Miss Villette Wainwright, Miss Florence Richards, Miss Dorothy Wilson, Miss Ruth Eisenhower, Mrs. Joseph Vetterlin, Mrs. Channing Wegofarth, Mrs. George Ott Rudderford, Mrs. Francis Stevens, Miss Katherine Stevens, Miss Marguerite Lester, Mrs. Charles Kendrick, Mrs. J. C. Salvas, Mrs. Benjamin H. Ketcham, Miss Eleanor H. Graham, Miss Gertrude Crane, Mrs. Frederick Harding and Mrs. George Smith.

ROSEMONT—Mrs. Frederick M. Mitchell is entertaining Miss Virginia Charlton, of Boston, as her guest during the holidays. Miss Charlton attends school in Washington.

CHESTNUT HILL

Mrs. A. Barker Mellor, of Mermaid lane, will have in a few days for Atlantic City, where she will spend the Easter holidays.

Mrs. Thomas Dunn will entertain at dinner before the dance at Huntingdon Valley on Friday night of this week. Covers will be laid for eight guests.

Mrs. J. A. Hollenback, of Yonkers, N. Y., has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. E. Kneeder, of Rex avenue, for several weeks.

GERMANTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Newkirk, of 141 Phil Elmsa street, will give a dinner at the Germantown Cricket Club on Saturday evening, April 10, in honor of their son, Wartham Newkirk. The guests will afterward attend the dancing class, chaperoned by Mrs. George A. Brooke. Spring flowers and greens will form the table decorations. The guests will include Miss Judith Jennings, Miss Janet Fairlie, Miss Nancy Smyth, Miss Elizabeth Van Dusen, Miss Eleanor Wunder, Miss Margaret Burton, Miss Marian Button, Miss Martha Hyslop, Miss Mary Bonner Daniel, Miss Josephine Reeves, Miss Mary Primrose Reeves, Edward Cassard, William Kingsley, William Beard, Lewis Robinson, Russell Robinson, Allen McIntyre, Charles Taylor, Charles Carrigan, Gordon Knapp, Kenneth Klitsen and Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Wartham.

Mrs. William B. Kurtz, of Manheim street, entertained at luncheon yesterday at her home. Covers were laid for 19 guests. Mrs. Kurtz will leave today for Greenfield, Mass., to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John B. White.

Mrs. E. J. Lavino and her daughter, Miss Paula Lavino, will spend Easter at the seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Doan, of 153 Carpenter street, have as their guest Miss Mary Crea daughter, of Sewickley, Pa.

ALONG THE READING

Mr. and Mrs. A. Raymond Raff will entertain at 10:30 this evening at their home, 1300 The Lane avenue. Those to be present are Mrs. J. F. C. Kiel, Mr. and Mrs. Felice Truitt, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Potts, Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Arsdale, Mr. and Mrs. Henry...

Koib, Mrs. E. H. McCall and Mr. and Mrs. William Glasgow.

Mrs. Joseph A. Meyer will be hostess at a "soiree" on Friday afternoon at her home. Those to be present are Mrs. Thomas P. Walker, Mrs. William E. Ross, Mrs. Charles Henry Fox, Mrs. George Child, Mrs. George S. Graham, Mrs. Frank A. Kane, Mrs. E. J. Berlet, Mrs. William T. Fox, Mrs. J. Howard Holmes, Mrs. William T. Brown, Jr., Mrs. D. Howard Evans, Mrs. William T. Grand, Miss Edna C. Wells, Miss Elizabeth Kazantz and Miss Anna B. Otterbach.

Miss Marjorie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Taylor, of Oak Lane, will be honor guest at a small dinner-dance which will be given by her uncle at his home in Chestnut Hill tomorrow evening.

Miss Marjorie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Taylor, of Oak Lane, will be honor guest at a small dinner-dance which will be given by her uncle at his home in Chestnut Hill tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Longshore, of Elkins Park, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, William Allen Longshore, Jr., Friday, March 12, 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris J. Dillworth, of 495 North 15th street, Logan, will motor to Connecticut, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Dillworth's sister.

WEST PHILADELPHIA

Leon Strat, of 496 Parkside avenue, was given a surprise party on Saturday evening, March 20. Among those present were Miss Ellen Jones, Miss Harriet Pinsky, M. Weiss, A. Abrahamson, Miss Anna Zeigler, A. Schwartz, Miss Leah Ruff, A. Orlov, Miss Rose Leirn, L. Strat, Miss Bertha Wainsbair, S. Strat, Miss Miriam Strat and Miss Clara Silver.

Mrs. Harry Smith, of 495 Walnut street, will spend the week-end at the Marlborough-Blenheim, as the guest of Mrs. Thomas Martin.

Invitations have been received for the 50th anniversary of the Loyal Legion at the Academy of Music, April 23. Colonel Nicholson, of 1125 North 41st street, will be one of the speakers. There will be a reception the following day to the members and their wives at the Academy of the Fine Arts.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Samuel Beckall, 419 Tasker street, went to New York today, where he will visit friends for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Simson, of 5th and Queen streets, gave a birthday party last night, in honor of 12-year-old Lewis Saman. Novel games were played, and there were several musical selections rendered by Miss Lenora Weber and Isador Weber. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Weber, Mr. and Mrs. I. Feldmann, Mr. and Mrs. W. Schlichter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greenmann, Dr. A. L. Schlichter, B. R. Mitzbah, Morris Fineberg, M. Levowitz, N. Levin, Ester Morgenstein, Lora Richter, Samuel Friedmann and Lewis Bernstein.

Philip Gordon, 1933 South 5th street, is entertaining several friends from Pittsburgh this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Carlin, of 2138 South 19th street, have as their guests at the present time Miss Angela McManus and Miss Anna McManus, of the Bronx, N. Y. Several delightful affairs have been arranged in their honor.

PROMINENT among today's weddings was that of Miss Selene L. James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. James, of Rex avenue, Roxborough, to Percy J. Myers, of Tioga, which was solemnized at noon in the Roxborough Presbyterian Church, Ridge and Port Royal avenues. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Z. Montgomery Gibson. Mr. James gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a lovely gown of ivory white satin, made with a court train, and trimmed with chintilly lace and orange blossoms. Her veil of tulle was attached to a chintilly lace cap, which was held in place with a spray of orange blossoms and bride roses and lilies of the valley formed her bouquet.

Miss S. Eve Mosteller, the maid of honor, wore an exceptionally pretty frock of pink silk crepe, made with a full skirt trimmed with lace ruffles. The waist also was made in "ye-olde-time" style with lace ruffles for trimming. Her hat and flowers matched the gown in color. Frederick Myers was his brother's best man, and the ushers were Walter B. Myers and Howard Klemm. The service was followed by a breakfast at the home of the bride's parents which, like the church, was decorated with palms, ferns and white flowers. Upon their return from a tour through the South, Mr. and Mrs. Myers will occupy their new home, Greystone, Township Line road, where they will receive on Thursdays, May 20 and 27.

Miss Emma Simmer Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Day, of 433 North Broad street, will become the bride of Frederick E. Aubel, Jr., of 1297 Wagner avenue, tonight at 6 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Dr. George Scherr, pastor of the Reformed Church, 5th and Huntingdon streets. The house will be decorated with palms, ferns, smilax and orchids. The bride, whose father will give her in marriage, will wear a lovely empire gown of white crepe meteor, trimmed with chintilly lace and pearls. Her veil of tulle will be arranged with a cap effect, and held in place with orange blossoms. She will carry a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Emily C. Aubel, who will be maid of honor, will wear a gown of pink pussy willow taffeta and lace, and will carry pink roses. John Francis Day, the bride's brother, will be Mr. Aubel's best man. The ceremony will be followed by a large reception. The bridegroom and bride will leave for a Southern trip, and will be at home after April 15 at 423 North Broad street.

Miss Elsie M. Carroll, of Lakewood avenue, Oak Lane, and Mrs. Arthur Hood, of Germantown, are the guests of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Carroll, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Carroll's mother, Mrs. Franklin P. Wagner, has just returned to her home, 637 North 7th street, Oak Lane, having been her daughter's guest for the last few days.

Friends of Miss Nancy Fullerton will be sorry to learn she is seriously ill in the Women's Homeopathic Hospital, 5th and Dauphin streets.

MISS ROSALIE D. LIPSCHUTZ. The engagement of Miss Lipschutz to Dr. Joseph H. Marcus, of St. John, N. B., Canada, is announced today by Miss Lipschutz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lipschutz, of 2035 North 33d street.

DANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Williams Will Give Farewell Party to Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Beebe.

An attractive and unusual affair will be given tonight by Captain Alexander Shriver Williams, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Williams, in their home, 232 South 21st street. It will be a "Despedida," which means in Spanish a farewell party, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Beebe, who will leave shortly for their new home in Wallingford. Instead of the conventional flowers for decorations, there will be fruits of all kinds. The table will be decorated with a huge mound of fruit, candelabra, with Japanese blue shades, and Japanese mandarin. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will be served at a late hour. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Weber, Mr. and Mrs. I. Feldmann, Mr. and Mrs. W. Schlichter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greenmann, Dr. A. L. Schlichter, B. R. Mitzbah, Morris Fineberg, M. Levowitz, N. Levin, Ester Morgenstein, Lora Richter, Samuel Friedmann and Lewis Bernstein.

The guests will include Commandant William Sheppard Benson, U. S. N., and Mrs. Benson, Colonel Littleton Waller T. Walker, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Walker, Lieutenant Commander Guy A. Bissett, U. S. N., and Mrs. Bissett, Lieutenant Commander Raymond S. Keyes, U. S. N., and Mrs. Keyes, Lieutenant Commander William Lee Pryor, U. S. N., and Mrs. Pryor, Paymaster A. B. Court, U. S. N., and Mrs. Court, Paymaster Manning H. Philbrick, U. S. N., and Mrs. Philbrick, Commander Alfred Hinds, U. S. N., and Mrs. Hinds, Commander B. B. Bierer, U. S. N., and Mrs. Bierer, Lieutenant H. E. Welte, U. S. N., and Mrs. Welte, Lieutenant W. F. Cochrane, U. S. N., and Mrs. Cochrane, Lieutenant Charles T. Blackburn, U. S. N., and Mrs. Blackburn, Lieutenant Charles H. Bullock, U. S. N., and Mrs. Bullock, Lieutenant Colonel C. G. Long, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Long, Major Smedley Butler, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Butler, Major H. Lee, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Lee, Captain G. W. Van Hoose, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Van Hoose, Captain W. W. Low, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Low, Lieutenant Ralph L. Shepard, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Shepard, Lieutenant Charles A. Lutz, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Lutz, Lieutenant Samuel W. Bogan, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Bogan, Lieutenant J. P. Wilcox, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Wilcox, Lieutenant Walter B. Decker, U. S. N., and Mrs. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Handy Hall, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Fillmore, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fenner, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Graves, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Cassidy, Dr. and Mrs. Raute, Dr. and Mrs. Klapp, Mrs. George W. Grant, Mrs. Vulte, Mrs. Hoyt and Messrs. George De Benneville Keim, C. Barrett Hickman, Captain T. C. Turner, U. S. M. C., Lieutenant A. H. Miller, U. S. M. C., Lieutenant John Quincy Adams, U. S. M. C., Lieutenant H. G. Bartlett, Captain Macker Babb, U. S. M. C., Captain J. C. Beaumont, U. S. M. C., Major C. S. Hill, U. S. M. C., Captain J. R. Horton, U. S. M. C., and Paymaster James A. Bull, U. S. N.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

SUFFRAGE BAZAAR

Mrs. W. E. Groben Held Bazaar for the Equal Suffrage League Yesterday.

Shadowbrook, the home of Mrs. William E. Groben on Lakeside avenue and Valley road, presented a gay scene yesterday, when a bazaar was held for the Oak Lane Equal Suffrage League. All day long buyers came and went, taking with them the luscious looking pies, cakes, jellies, preserves and candies, to say nothing of the household articles and Easter gifts. During the afternoon special features held sway. From 3 until 4 o'clock a musicale was given by Mrs. Luigi di Vincenzo, soprano; George Malpas, tenor, and Mrs. Edward L. Whitney, pianist. From 4 until 5 o'clock there were short suffrage addresses by Mrs. George Piersol, Mrs. William Albert Wood, Mrs. Scott Nearing and Mrs. J. Franklin Dechant.

In another section the superstitious and those curious to know what the future held for them gathered around the gypsy camp, where Mlle. Aime de Brabant, of Brussels, Belgium, assisted by Mlle. Charlotte Mulvey, told fortunes, danced and sang.

There was also a tea room, where tasty sandwiches, cakes and tea could be had. Mrs. W. Harry Miller and Mrs. Charles Asbury were the ushers.

The committee in charge of the day included Mrs. William E. Groben, Mrs. Nathaniel H. Rand, Mrs. Walter G. MacFarland, Mrs. C. Howard Anthony, Mrs. A. T. Bruegel, Mrs. Albert Gee, Mrs. A. L. Carhart, Mrs. W. Harry Miller, Mrs. J. Franklin Dechant, Mrs. Robert H. Dearden, Jr., Mrs. William H. Shelmitz and Mrs. George W. Stewart.

FRANKFORD

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

At the annual election of officers held by the Holmesburg Men's Association the following were elected for the ensuing year: William Boal, president; T. Wilson Batten and George W. Morrison, vice presidents; Albert Ferry, recording secretary; Thomas Griffith, financial secretary, and George R. Stevens, treasurer. The association, which has been such a powerful factor in Holmesburg since its organization, has completed the most prosperous year in its history. It has frequently taken up matters of town-wide interest and has brought them to a successful termination. The organization has recently installed in its rooms a shuffleboard and pool table, both of which are very popular among the members. The membership now numbers 350, and if it continues to increase with the same rapidity as of late larger quarters will have to be sought.

WHAT MILADY WEARS

AS THE season advances the "eternal feminine" in woman turns to the study of gowns, of